

Board Of Directors

Business entrepreneur, writer, and consultant. Currently works with organizations in implementing leadership development programs in both private and public sectors. With a background as a marketing and advertising executive, David McNair has over 30 years of business experience and has owned an advertising agency, a speakers' bureau and a leadership training company. Since 1981, David McNair has become established as a respected "Branding Expert" through his work with 100's of businesses on the essentials of creating recognizable, sustainable brands. David has translated these branding principles into results oriented seminars that get the tools in the hands of people who need it most – job seekers. David@JobbingAmerica.org

David L. McNair President/Director

Professional speaker, author and executive coach. Carl believes that behind every successful person is someone who believes in them. After twenty five years as a corporate executive at Saks Fifth Avenue and Neiman Marcus, he created workplace strategies for staff development. Carl helps companies learn to effectively communicate and engage employees within their organization. He is an adjunct professor at SMU, a contributing columnist for The Dallas Morning News and community leader. Carl has traveled extensively throughout the world and deeply values the lessons of learning through living, as well as the insights gained through having the courage to look within ourselves.

Carl@JobbingAmerica.org

Carl Youngberg Vice President/Director of Learning

Laura Nelson has ten years of experience working with educational, non-governmental, and religious organizations. She has served in positions of increasing responsibility within non-profit organizations including managing daily operations, creating and delivering leadership training, collaborating with volunteers and board members. Additionally, she oversaw the development of education and promotion activities, managed the budget and finances, and supervised fundraising activities. To each of these areas she brought commitment and furtherance of the core vision and mission of the organization. Youngberg.Laura@gmail.com

Laura Nelson Board Treasurer/Director

JOBGING AMERICA™

CONTACT INFORMATION: JOBBING AMERICA FOUNDATION

Phone 214-227-9916, Fax 214-279-2424

PO Box 836881, Richardson, TX 75083

www.JobbingAmerica.org